

Changing the Perspective of the 411 on the 5-0

The Des Moines NAACP Youth Council in collaboration with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Des Moines Police Department, and the FBI Citizens Academy Alumni will host a youth forum, 'Changing the Perspective of the 411 on the 5-0.' This project is designed to be a multicultural event. One hundred minority youth ages 13-18 representing the African American, Asian, Bosnian, Latino, Middle Eastern and Native American communities are invited to participate in a serious conversation with law enforcement, share perspectives and generate a positive dialog.
